

NEWS RELEASE

Milas participates in ABA Bar Leadership Institute

CHICAGO-Joining some 300 other emerging leaders of lawyer organizations from across the country at the American Bar Association's Bar Leadership Institute (BLI), March 13-15 was Jane I. Milas of New Haven, CT, President-Elect of the New Haven County Bar Association.

The BLI is held annually in Chicago for incoming officials of local and state bars, special focus lawyer organizations, and bar foundations. The seminar provides the opportunity to confer with ABA officials, bar leader colleagues, executive staff, and other experts on the operation of such associations.

Milas joined ABA President-Elect Tommy H. Wells of Birmingham, AL and ABA Executive Director Henry F. White in Sessions on bar governance, finance, communications, and planning for a presidential term.

Various ABA entities briefed the participants on resources available from the ABA for local, state, national, and specialty bar associations and foundations.

The BLI is sponsored by the ABA Standing Committee on Bar Activities and Services and the ABA Division for Bar Services as part of the Association's long-standing goal of fostering partnerships with state and local bars and related organizations. Cooperating ABA staff entities include the Division for Media Relations and Communication Services.

For BLI information contact Pamela Robinson, Associate Director, ABA Division for Bar Services, 321 N. Clark St., Chicago, Illinois 60611-3314, phone 312/988-5345, e-mail: robinsonp@staff.abanet.org.

The American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional membership organization in the world. With more than 410,000 members, the ABA provides law school accreditation, continuing legal education, information about the law, programs to assist lawyers and judges in their work, and initiatives to improve the legal system for the public.